Key Scriptures:

Genesis 2:24-25; Ephesians 2:8-10, 5:18-33, 6:19-20

Main Idea: Partner with the Poet and His Poetry

Vow for Couples and Singles: I will partner with the Poet and His Poetry in love, respect, and creativity.

1- Compose with the Creator's Creativity

2- Rhyme with Your Partner in Crime

- Position of Submission

3- Embrace the Church's Refrain

- Manifest the Mystery

Talk about it:

Ice Breaker: How have you been doing in closing the gap between your intentions and your actions? How do you currently partner with your spouse?

Read Ephesians 2:8-10

How do you see God making poetry in your life? How can you compose with your Creator's creativity in your life? Family? Work? Other places?

Read Ephesians 5:18-33

As we went through this passage on Sunday, we reflected on the call to be filled with the Spirit through mutual submission, love and respect. How can you practice mutual submission in your marriage and relationships? How can you practice mutual love and respect in your marriage and relationships? How can you practice co-leadership in your marriage and relationships?

One of the points on Sunday was focusing on identity over function, and function over role. How can you focus on identity over function and function over role in your marriage and relationships?

Read Ephesians 5:31-33 and 6:19-20

What are some ways that you can make known the mystery of Christ and His Gospel? How have you done this and what are some stories of that mystery being revealed to others?

Close in Prayer

Challenge for the Week: Choose one way to empower your spouse, a family member, or friend by promoting their function rather than a stereotypical role.
